

I absolutely and completely believe that XM should be allowed to broadcast local weather and traffic information, and whatever else they wish to broadcast. Being that it is a subscription service that I pay for, I do not see how the FCC has any right to decide what can and cannot be aired. Please, stop meddling in our lives and let us hear what we want to hear!!!